Adelaide Bragg (9)
Adelaide Bragg & Associates
 A start with textile company Colefax and Fowler sparked Adelaide's love of timeless interiors. She launched her own business in 1989 and now creates old-new harmony in urban and rural projects nationally.

Juliette Arent & Sarah-Jane Pyke (17)
Arent & Pyke
 Sarah-Jane (left) and Juliette launched their practice in 2007 and quickly built a reputation for beautiful residential interiors. The living room of their Pavilion House took out the Room of the Year in H&G's Top 50 Rooms showcase in 2014.

HONOUR ROLL

A nod to the many women in interiors who've set the bar high and continue to inspire.

 A design all-rounder, Shareen is known for a balanced and elegant style that has guided the aesthetic of key brands, her residential projects and renowned design website, Share Design.

Mardi Doherty (10)
Doherty Design Studio
 Producing residential and commercial projects from concept to completion, Mardi and her team use intuitive, holistic design principles and bespoke finishes to express individuality in interiors.

Sarah Davison (12)
Sarah Davison Interior Design
 "I've always been inspired by beautiful residential architecture and interiors and the way they influence our lives," says Sarah. Quality materials and harmony are hallmarks of her interior style.

Susanna Bilardo (14)
Enoki
 The director of SA studio Enoki since 2004, Susanna creates spaces that are enjoyable to live and work in, and loves to excite and challenge people with thoughtful, beautiful and functional interiors.

Miriam Fanning (16)
Mim Design
 She launched Mim Design in 2000 when she had a family, with the aim of "being continually inspired". Today, the busy studio has expanded to 19 and tackles interiors, architecture, styling and brand direction.

Anna Spiro (11)
Black & Spiro
 With her flair for layering colourful fabrics and textiles with antiques and special one-off pieces, Anna, now also a blogger and author, has been a decorator's darling since she established her Brisbane shop and interiors practice in 2001.

Sonia Simpfendorfer (13)
Nexus Designs
 Sonia grew up in a creative, music-loving household in rural SA. As a director and creative director of Melbourne firm Nexus Designs, she has continued the ground-breaking design approach championed by founder Janne Faulkner in 1967.

Meryl Hare (15)
Hare+Klein
 Regarded as a trailblazer in the field, Meryl is a Design Institute of Australia Hall of Famer. Her nurturing, collaborative approach ensures her Sydney firm produces stellar interiors and talented young designers.

Leigh Boswell (7)
Highgate House
 Growing up with both mother and father in the interiors and building industries, Leigh polished her skills in London before opening her award-winning business, Highgate House, in partnership with her mother more than 20 years ago.

Louise Bell (8)
Interni
 Named a trailblazer by her contemporaries, Louise worked in London and Paris before establishing Interni, a Sydney firm known for high-quality residential, retail and commercial interior design projects.

Kim Pearson (5)
Kim Pearson
 Madly in love with beauty and exploring it in all its guises, Kim has a healthy respect for marrying the fabulous with the practical, and "never falling into the formulaic".

Tina Engelen (6)
CO-AP
 Her designer's eye was honed in the family business, furniture importers Dedece, and Tina shot to fame in the late 90s as one half of architectural practice Engelen Moore. She formed CO-AP with Will Fung in 2005 and successes since include an AIA award for the Oakes Apartment.

Bettina Clark & Angela Antelme (3)
Ascot Living
 Bettina (left) and Angela say their country childhoods informed their love of comfortable, liveable interiors. Designers at Ascot Living for 20 and 15 years respectively, they create friendly, interesting and practical family homes.
